

Alexia Longacre, Founding Principal, The Virtual Wizards

Prior to founding “The Virtual Wizards”, a Virtual Business Management and Virtual Assistance company, in 2000, Alexia offered Business Administration assistance to Executives in varied industries, such as Entertainment and Environmental Engineering, for companies such as Walt Disney Feature Animation, Dames & Moore, The Welk Music Group and Sheraton Hotel. Her career in Business Administration spans over 20 years.

Alexia was born and raised in Germany, where she earned her bachelor’s degree in Business Administration and Economics. She also completed a three-year apprenticeship in a Law Office to become a Paralegal. For Alexia, the highlight of her job happens when she is devising new business strategies and acting as an “idea sounding board” for future plans.

Her interests include politics, world travel, supporting women in business, playing tennis and basketball, and most importantly, spending time with her wonderful family.
